

Queen of the Isle

1 East Ferry Road, London E14

Rooff Residential Developments Case Study

The former Queen of the Isle Public House, located adjacent to the Docks, has been developed to provide a contemporary 6 storey building.

An insitu reinforced concrete frame has been used with insulated render to accommodate the interesting “peninsula” shape of the site.

14 apartments are located above a purpose built restaurant occupying the ground and 1st floors.

Client:

Rooff Residential Ltd
Mr. Steve Drury
Tel: 020 8534 9797

Architect:

Chassey & Last Architects
Mr. Jonathon Gidley
Tel: 020 7483 7700

Engineer:

Roger Stagg Assocs
Mr. Carlos Newis
Tel: 01322 221273